

HAPPY BIRTHDAY,
CAMILLE!

For the year ahead:
projects that move
forward, meetings
that end on time,
and always one
excellent lunch spot
up your sleeve.
Enjoy your day.

Your standards make our work better, but it's your generosity
that stays with the team. Thank you for the advice you give so freely and the calm
you bring to busy
weeks.

I still remember the Tuesday the coffee
machine died and you
organised a blind
tasting with three thermos flasks. You make every surprise much funnier. Here's to a brilliant year ahead!

— Malik

Happy birthday, Camille! Thank you for being the person who can turn a wobbly first draft into an idea the whole team wants to champion. Today, we promise: no "quick
feedback" before the cake.

Even from six hundred kilometres away, I know the break has started when your "anyone free
for five minutes?"
message appears.
Thank you for making
real space for remote teammates. Happy birthday!

We took a vote:
today, cake is officially the top priority. A very happy birthday,
Camille, from the whole team!
